

Dr Daniel Bronstein - Tonal Pediatrics: Hour-by-Hour

8:00-9:00 Introductions

- Developing a philosophy for caring for children*
- Practice set-up for pediatrics and pregnancy
- Safety and efficiency

9:00-10:00 Pediatrics:

- Age-specific* examination procedures and testing for proper diagnosis and case management:
  - ~~Infant~~ (Will address after lunch)
  - Toddler
  - Child
  - Adolescent

10:00-11:00 Technique:

- Adjusting the pediatric population utilizing diversified, Thompson and Logan techniques
- Applying a tonal analysis to the pediatric population

11:00-12:00 Pregnancy Part 1:

- Anatomy of a pregnant woman
- Special considerations when adjusting and managing pregnant women

12:00-1:00 Pregnancy Part 2:

- Adjusting the pregnant woman utilizing diversified, Thompson, SOT, Logan and tool-assisted techniques
- Applying a tonal analysis to the pregnant woman

1:00-2:00 Lunch Break

2:00-3:00 Perinatal Period, Labor, Birth, Postpartum & The Neonate

- Review of birth procedures and the effect on the newborn
- New patient and examination procedures for the neonate

3:00-4:00

- Adjusting the neonate utilizing Logan and diversified techniques
- Applying a tonal analysis to the infant patient

4:00-5:00

- Networking for patient success and co-management
- Final thoughts on patient care and adjusting success applied to pregnancy and pediatrics