

Taking Family Practice To The Next Level

Dr. Bruce Steinberg, CACCP

8:00-9:00 Introductions

- Taking care of children is FUN (right?!)
- What is required for successful outcomes in pediatric care
- Pediatric practice considerations

9:00-10:00 Pediatric Science (Part 1)

- The 4T's
- Epigenetic Expression of dis-ease
- What about Tone?
- Vagus, immune function, and inflammation

10:00-11:00 Pediatric Science (Part 2)

- Poly-vagal Theory and "the shift"
- The Pre-Frontal Cortex
- Chiropractic and Brain Balance: what's the connection?

11:00-12:00 Infant Assessment & Considerations (Part 1)

- Review of birth procedures and the effect on the newborn
- Primitive Reflexes
- Day 1 procedures for infant care

12:00-1:00 Infant Assessment & Considerations (Part 2)

- Special considerations when adjusting and managing infants
- Applying a tonal analysis to the infant patient
- Day 2 procedures for infant care

1:00-2:00 Lunch Break

2:00-3:00 Pediatric Assessment & Considerations (Toddler)

- Applying a pediatric tonal analysis
- Toddler care considerations

3:00-4:00 Pediatric Assessment & Considerations (Pre-schoolers & Grade-schoolers)

- Applying a pediatric tonal analysis
- Pre- and Grade-schooler considerations

4:00-5:00 Writing a Case Study

- Anatomy of a case study
- Leveraging case studies and research in your practice